REPORT TO COUNCIL

Re: Memorial Marker Placement – Special Request

Background:

Section 57 of District of Barriere Cemetery Bylaw No. 83, states:

“No memorials may be placed on unoccupied grave spaces without special permission.”

Discussion:

The family of the deceased, Trevor D Moore, have a pre-purchased cremains plot in the District of Barriere Cemetery. However, the family made the decision to scatter their loved one’s ashes in a private ceremony in another location. Therefore, while their pre-purchased cremains plot will remain unoccupied, they still wish to place their memorial marker on the plot they own in the cemetery and are asking the District for special permission to do so.

Recommendation: That special permission under Section 57 of District of Barriere Cemetery Bylaw No. 83 be granted for the placement of the memorial marker for Trevor D Moore in the Barriere Cemetery.
