3. BANDSHELL MUSIC EQUIPMENT

The Recreation Coordinator provided a draft quote of music equipment that could be potentially purchased for the Bandshell. Discussion ensued regarding other items that can be added, and questions were asked about the current line items. Staff will inquire and report back at a later meeting. It was agreed upon, security measures should be included in the cost of equipment purchasing. It was suggested that funds should try and be recouped and the topic of "Beer Gardens" is to be discussed at a later meeting.

4. HALLOWEEN

It was agreed to continue with the annual, Council, fireworks budget of $1,100 for the Fire Department to host the Halloween Fireworks and to hold off on planning to build upon the event until Halloween falls on a Friday or Saturday. Until this time, staff will confirm if the current event requires candy to be handed out or if prizes are awarded for costumes and will re-discuss the plans for this year at the next meeting.

5. ANNUAL EVENTS

A list of the Committee's events that took place this year was provided, and each event was discussed regarding the following year's date. It was agreed upon that ParticipACTION will be side tabled for now. Details of the remaining upcoming events were noted by staff to be brought up at the time of planning during said event(s).

6. PUBLIC INQUIRIES – None presented

7. NEXT MEETING – October 11, 2023 @ 9:30am

8. ADJOURNMENT
